A SCHOOL FOR AND BY FIRST NATIONS, PROPELLED BY HEC MONTRÉAL

FNEE strengthens Indigenous leadership by creating and delivering training programs rooted in the realities, cultures, and aspirations of First Nations.

OUR IMPACT

Since 2021:

1,300+
Indigenous leaders

65
cohorts delivered

6
regular programs and on-demand training

826
media mentions

12,000
social media followers

Our initial goal of training 1,000 Indigenous leaders in five years was reached in just three years, from 2022 to 2025.

COMMUNITY IMPACT

Through this experience at FNEE, I've gained valuable skills that will help me better serve my community in my role as Chief. I feel more confident making decisions collaboratively with fellow leaders and engaging effectively with both community members and external partners. This journey has inspired me to continue learning.

— MELANIE MORRISON, Kanien'kehá:ka
Chief, Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke

VISION

Build a prosperous and sustainable future by strengthening the skills of our First Peoples leaders to support self-determination today and tomorrow.

VALUES

Respect
Collaboration — Innovation
Integrity — Self-determination

NOTRE MISSION

Offer a co-created learning journey, grounded in our values, that supports the flourishing of First Nations in a spirit of respect, collaboration, and reciprocity.

OUR FUTURE

Five strategic directions guide our work over the next five years:

1. Co-develop innovative programs
2. Support Indigenous youth
3. Strengthen our governance with HEC Montréal
4. Develop and consolidate our partnerships
5. Explore new partnerships in Canada and internationally

OUR PROGRAMS

Our six regular programs bring together 25 to 30 Indigenous leaders from across the land, including the 11 Nations in Quebec and beyond.

These learning journeys take place in community, in person, and online.

GOVERNANCE	14 days
ENTREPRENEURSHIP	15 days
MANAGEMENT	10 days
WOMEN LEADERSHIP	5 days
ECONOMIC RECONCILIATION	9 days
NEXT GENERATION	4 days

The key to knowledge is growing and learning together across Nations, hand in hand. Together, mamo kirano.

— JOVAN OTTAWA QUITICH, Atikamekw
Next Generation program

I came to gain tools to better fulfill my new role as an elected leader. What I value most is sharing our realities and strengths with members from other communities.

— JOSÉPHINE PINETTE, Innu
Governance program
